

Quick Start Guide: Sharing Books in WriteReader

 Class books

Option 1: Bookshelf

By default, students can see one another's books in the Class Bookshelf.

Students toggle to "Class books" to see their classmates' books. Teachers can turn this ability on or off in the "Settings" tab.

Note: Students cannot edit their classmates' books, only view them.

Option 2: Link Sharing

Link sharing allows completed books to be easily shared with family and friends.

Step 1: Open the book you'd like to share.

Step 2: Toggle the "Link sharing" button ON.

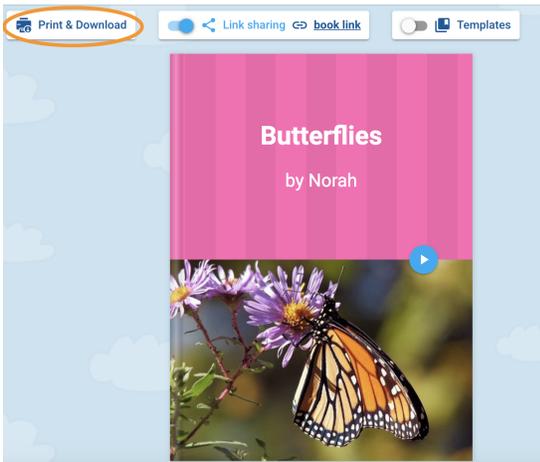

Step 3: Click on "book link" to copy the link.

Note: If you do not wish to share the book any longer, just click "Link sharing" again and it will turn off.

Step 4: The link can now be sent to family and friends via email, Seesaw or other method.

Option 5: Reading Rooms

Share a collection of books by creating a Reading Room. Reading Rooms allow access to a selection of books without having to login to a WriteReader account.

Step 1: Tap the "Reading Room" button from your class dashboard.

Step 2: Name your Reading Room

Step 3: Select the books you'd like to add to your Reading Room

Step 4: Copy the URL for your Reading Room to share with others.
